Five schools, one aim

October 2017 news

- We held our eighth board meeting on the 17th October. We take this opportunity to report on progress to the parents in our schools.
- David Gumbrell offered his resignation as this was his last meeting as Head of Long Ditton St Mary's and Colin Stevenson (Chair of Hinchley Wood Primary School GB) resigned due to work commitments. The Board thanked them for their work and support in our initial year.

Latest news

We have now held three meetings of Foundation Governors (representing each school governing body) and one of the governors gave a progress report to the ELT board.

Priorities were agreed for the Foundation Group to help support the strategic development of the ELT.

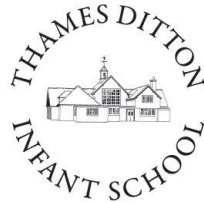

Latest news

- As our Trust is now just over one year the emphasis for the second year will be on developing a strategic direction for the ELT.
- The detail of the work completed in the first year is available in the June news report on each school's link to The Trust. One recent example is the excellent shared Inset at the start of the autumn term.
- Next term we will welcome students from Kingston University to complete the practical aspect of their teacher training studies.
